
BASEBALL DOINGS OF OVER SUNDAY.

Yesterday's results:

American League—No games.
 National League—Brooklyn 6, Chicago 2; Cincinnati 4, New York 3 (10 innings); St. Louis 3, Philadelphia 2.

 Zimmerman failed to hit Sunday. The big German fanned twice before "Don Carlos" Ragon's sweeping curves and his team-mates did little better.
 Hence the Cub's defeat. Ragon who was a Cub for a few minutes a couple of seasons ago was out for "blood," and believe us, he got it. He seemed to be able to place the pellet wherever he pleased, and had Zim, Schulte, Hofman, et al., wishing that they were members of Ty Cobb's little strike party.

 Charley Smith, Jim Lavender and "Lefty" Maroney attempted to do slab duty for the West Siders, but could do nothing with Dahlen's charges, who, led by "Hub" Northen, collected 9 hits.

 Tom Needham worked behind the bat for the Cubs, and though not very fortunate in catching base thieves, managed to collect 2 of the 4 hits allowed by Mr.
 Ragon.

 Eddie Phelps, the veteran backstop who used to do the receiving for the Pirates when they had a habit of copping pennants, was behind the bat for the Dodgers and acted like a giddy recruit.

 It is rumored about the West Side park that Fred Toney, instead of going to Louisville, hid himself to Nashville and indulged in a wife.

 White Sox enjoyed a day of rest yesterday, and after a little excursion to Bunker Hill, sat down in the hotel lobby and began making plans for the world's series. It was definitely decided, after an hour's debate to use Walsh in the first game.

 The Sox won the second game of the Boston series Saturday, chiefly by great base running and good hitting on the part of "Shano" Collins and Rollie Zeider.

 "Bruno" Block arrived in Chicago, and immediately placed himself under the care of Dr.
 James H. Blair, the White Sox's physician, who made an examination of the catcher's split finger, and announced that the hard-hitting backstop would be out of the game for the better part of 3 months. Meanwhile the receiving duty involves upon Kuhn and Mayer.

 The White Sox are thoroughly in sympathy with Ty Cobb in the present mix-up, but on account of their loyalty
